"In a Fog and Hard Aground."

Such is the melancholy condition in which the News of yesterday reports itself; but we regret to observe that it holds the Sentinel responsible for the disaster. So far from getting the News into "a fog," or trying to run it "hard aground," we have done our best to keep it afloat and on the right tack. If, in spite of our friendly aid and counsel, it has got among the breakers and finds the rats already deserting the sinking ship, it must look to its own incompetent pilots and quarrelsome crew, for an explanation of the mishap.

The News, in return for our acknowledgement of its very efficient services in swelling the Republican majorities in this State, and defeating Mr. HADLEY in this District, politely thanks us for essentially aiding the election of Mr. WELLS in '52 and '54. Very like the News thinks that the Sentinel "aided" Mr. WELLS, as the News did Mr. POTTER, by opposing him; and as it is painfully conscious of its own unfortunate infirmities, in this respect, it may be pardoned for suspecting a like weakness in its neighbour.

Lastly, the News tenders us its "congratulations on having secured such an appropriate figure head" for our columns, and we can do no less, by way of reciprocating the civility, than to offer it our felicitations upon the conspicuous block-head that ornaments its own.

From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.

It so happened that while reading the Sentinel of the 10th inst., containing a notice of the losses on the Lakes for the past season, amounting to four millions of dollars—to say nothing of the many lives also sacrificed by the same general cause—the want of adequate harbors—the Report of Lieut. Page, of the U. S. Navy, of his explorations by order of the General Government, and at the expense of the people bordering on the Lakes, as well as of other parts of our country, of the river La Plata, in South America, and its tributaries the Parana and Uruguay—fell under my observation; and my first impulse was to ask myself the question, "how is it that there is constitutional power to survey and explore the rivers and shores of foreign countries—lay down directions for safe navigation—point out and obviate dangers; and yet within our own borders, and for the protection of life and property at home, no authority can be found, according to the creed of the so-called "Democracy," or the Cincinnati Platform, in our Constitution?

Perhaps the day will come when the States bordering upon our great Lakes especially, as parties more immediately interested in their safe navigation, will arouse themselves to the prompt and proper solution of this question, and without regard to party distinctions, will insist that our home interests must and shall enjoy the aid and protection of the Government, at least in an equal degree with the interests of foreign commerce, and the far-reaching schemes of Slavery propagandism. For it will be observed that this La Plata expedition is in a region where slave labor may succeed well, and thus a new field be opened to Slavery, which would seem to be the greatest aspiration and concern of the Government as now administered, and as under Mr. Buchanan it will be likely to be administered.

It is impossible to read Mr. Dobbin's compilation of the losses on the Lakes, without a sense of the deep wrong against humanity and property—as well as outrage upon common sense—perpetrated by the party which persists in withholding the aid of the Federal Government from the obvious and practicable duty of making secure harbors at many points along these Lakes. Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio and New York have waked up to their rights as freemen, as evinced by the late election. I hope Illinois will join the glorious brotherhood. Of Pennsylvania I have no hope. She seems irretrievably given up to ignorance, and therefore to the Slaveocracy. But if the Northwest, with New York and New England, shall henceforth act in unison, we must prevail, and give such a tone and action to the General Government, as will secure Liberty, and promote the general welfare.

The filibuster interest here and hereabouts has had a severe attack of chill and fever within the past few days. On Friday, we heard by telegraph that Walker had whipped all Costa Rica, and parts adjacent, by land and by water, and was supreme in his Nicaragua kingdom, having, however, inexplicably for a victor, burned his chief city and strongest hold in his Empire—Granada. Great was the rejoicing over the news among the filibusters; but it was as brief as great, for next day came authentic intelligence that the burning of Granada was the desperate vengeance of a fugitive invader, and that Walker had no foothold in the land of his fancied El Dorado, where some 400 of his men, destitute of provisions, and comparatively of arms, were surrounded by a numerous body of exasperated adversaries, while Walker himself was in a vessel on the Lake, helpless for himself, or for others. It seems quite possible that the next arrival may bring intelligence of his flight and the destruction of his deluded followers. What is not the responsibility of those who have been instrumental in leading uninformed adventurers into this infamous enterprize! And yet we sometimes hear such enterprizes talked of as patriotic, and designed to liberate oppressed populations.

Congress seems to do but little, and before the Christmas holidays I presume little will be done, beyond the preparation in committees, of the various bills to be acted on after New Years.—The President's infamous and calumnious Message is receiving, as it deserves, a searching examination and condemnation in both Houses.—The tone of the Republican members is admirable. They feel—and their adversaries, too, feel—that, although numerically beaten, this party has planted itself in the hearts and consciences of the Free States, and must prevail. Hence the firm, yet moderate and assured tone in which its Representatives speak; and hence, too, the sincere decorous tone and somewhat bated breath in which the Slavery Propagandists speak.

These seems to prevail a wide impression that Congress will be mainly occupied with bills admitting of plunder, at this session, and the schemes for a Pacific Railroad, to be made mainly by grants of the public lands, are log-rolling enormously. I fear the effect of such bills very much upon the success of a measure than which I hardly can conceive one more essential to the Union and its prosperity—the speedy building of a Railroad to the Pacific.

Reported for the Sentinel.

IMPORTANT INSURANCE CASE.

IN THE COUNTY COURT—BEFORE JUDGE PAINE—JURY TRIAL.

Ernst Prieger et. al. vs. the Exchange Mutual Insurance Co. of Philadelphia. Action to recover insurance on a Paper Mill. H. L. Palmer for Plaintiff, and Butler & Buttrick for Defendant.

This was an action brought by the plaintiffs, who were owners of a paper mill, situated in the town of Wauwatosa, to recover the insurance money of $1,500 claimed under a policy of the Exchange Mutual Insurance Company of Philadelphia.

The mill was burned at 3 o'clock in the morning, was entirely consumed; there was no person on the premises at the time of the fire, and of course the mill was not running. These facts were established by the plaintiffs in their evidence; no evidence was adduced on the part of the defence.

The points of the case rest upon the following questions and answers in the application for the Insurance, and, it was claimed by the defendant, and the claim sustained by the Court, there was a failure to keep and fulfil the stipulations in the application, which was made a part of the policy.

Question 9. During what hours are the premises worked? by what power propelled? If by water, is the supply sufficient?

Answers to Question 9. The premises are constantly worked; propelled by water power; supply sufficient.

Question 10. Is a watch kept on the premises during the night? Is there a good watch clock?

Answer to Question 10. No watch kept; except people working on the mill during the night.

At the conclusion of the evidence for the plaintiffs, the defence moved for a nonsuit, upon the ground, that, by the plaintiffs' own evidence they were not entitled to a verdict; it appearing upon the face of the policy, that the application for insurance, and the statements therein, were made by the parties express warranties; and, it further appearing in the evidence, that some of the warranties in said application had not been kept by the plaintiffs, the defendant insisted that if it appeared that any one statement or warranty in the application had not been kept, the policy by its terms was void, and the plaintiffs could not recover, whether such statement or warranty was material to the risk or not.

Upon full argument from both counsel, the Court held, that as it appeared, by the plaintiffs' own showing, that some of the stipulations in the application had not been kept, the policy was void, and for that reason the motion was sustained and the nonsuit granted.

The plaintiffs' counsel took exceptions to the decision of the Court and the case will go upon a writ of error to the Supreme Court.

A very great difference of opinion exists among lawyers as to the correctness of this decision, but our object in giving it publicity, is to caution parties insuring their premises, to be careful in making correct answers to the questions in the application, and not to fill out the application carelessly, as though it was a mere matter of form requiring no attention whatever. Since this decision was given, we have been shown several applications, which, though filled out by men of good business habits and generally correct, are utterly worthless and will have to be renewed, as in case of fire no recovery could be had.

BANKING SECURITIES.—It seems a little strange that while the six per cent bonds of the State of New York are from 16 to 20 per cent above par, principally owing to the demand for them for Banking purposes, the first mortgage bonds of our Railroad Companies, though drawing eight per cent interest, and also available for banking purposes in our State, are so much below par.—All our roads are earning not only the interest on their indebtedness, but fair dividends on their stock, and there is not one of them whose first mortgage bonds are not as safe and reliable security as can be produced, and there is no good reason why they should sell below par. We understand there is an increasing demand for these securities for banking purposes, that must soon have the effect to raise the price to something near their value.

LA CROSSE & MIL. R. R.—DIVIDEND.—The La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. Company have declared a dividend of five per cent, on all full cash paid shares in the general stock of the Company, payable out of the net earnings of the last half of the current year. On all shares transferred to the stock agency in New York, dividends will be paid at the Broadway Bank on the 2d of January next; and on all other shares at the Company's office in Milwaukee on the 7th of January next. The Transfer Books will be closed here and in New York on the 20th instant, to-morrow, and will remain closed in New York till the 4th, and in Milwaukee till the 10th of January next.

JEFFERSON COUNTY SEAT QUESTION.—The Watertown Chronicle brings partial returns from the towns in Jefferson county, of the vote on the removal of the County seat to Watertown. The votes and majorities thus far foot up 3960 for removal, and 1061 against.

Watertown has "astonished the world, and even herself," by her vote. It shows a prodigious increase of population since November, when the city cast about 930 votes. Now the vote is 2,000, cast unanimously of course for removal! This puts Watertown next to Milwaukee in population,—if it is all right.

DEATH OF RICHARD L. WILSON.—We learn, with sincere regret, from the Chicago papers of yesterday, that RICHARD L. WILSON, senior editor of the Journal, and the oldest member of the Chicago press, a man of fine abilities, generous impulses and attractive social qualities, died at his father's residence in Albany, on the 17th inst., after a protracted illness.

Buchanan and "Free Kansas."

The following letter in the N. Y. Evening Post exposes one of the many "false pretences" to which Mr. BUCHANAN owes his election. The production of the "poster" in question, in the U. S. Senate, by Mr. HALE, excited general laughter, and crowded Mr. BIGLER, of Pennsylvania, into a very narrow corner:

Correspondence of the Evening Post.
Philadelphia, Dec. 9, 1856.

"BUCHANAN, BRECKENRIDGE AND FREE KANSAS."

Mr. Editor—This was the heading to the call for the Buchanan meetings at Conderport, Potter county, and various other counties in this State, before the last election. One of the original posters for one of their meetings I have this day transmitted to a United States Senator at Washington City. Similar placards were used and circulated in parts of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and New Jersey; and these deceptions actually turned the election in three of those States.—The frauds in voting, great as they were, could not have accomplished the purpose. From these facts it appears the President elect is such by fraud and deception! In 1844 the friends of Polk and Dallas in Pennsylvania, used and circulated placards for calls of their meetings with the caption of "Polk, Dallas and the Tariff of 1842," which, together with the contents of the "Kane Letter," had a wonderful effect in this State.

It is now pretty well ascertained that the failure of the Lancaster Bank was owing to the large sums it contributed before the October and November elections to the Buchanan cause.—Let us now hope that the same ill fate will not overtake his administration. Let us give him a fair trial. All is not lost that is in danger. The Chair of State has been disgraced and dishonored by the means used to obtain it, but let us pray that its occupant, when once seated, may not carry out the same evil course, but do all in his power to make Kansas a free Territory—a free State—and continue our country a free nation. Fremont and Freedom is still the cry for 1860.

PATRICK HENRY.

A Cold "Sucker."

Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.

The telegraph has already given you some idea of the speech of Mr. Morrison, the new democratic member from Mr. Trumbull's district, Illinois, and a slight idea of the effect it had upon the House. The following colloquy between Mr. Morrison and his colleague (Mr. Norton) is too rich to let pass. The confessions of the new-fledged democrat are not to be beaten by modern converts.

Mr. Norton—I wish to ask my colleague if, at the time the Nebraska Bill was passed, he approved, and now approves, of the repeal of the Missouri restriction?

Mr. Morrison—I can answer my colleague very easily. At the time of the passage of the Nebraska Bill, I was a Whig. I had been taught as a Whig, as the honorable gentleman himself has, to throw every obstacle in the way of the Democratic party [Great laughter]. I did disapprove of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. I assailed its repeal, and I assailed the Democrats who voted for it. If the gentleman wants me to go further, and make a clean breast of it, I will say that I have assailed every prominent Democrat in this Union within the last fifteen years [Roars of laughter]. Now, Sir, the gentleman asks me if I approve of the principles contained in the Kansas-Nebraska bill, which involves the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. I answer him emphatically, I do approve of it.

Mr. Norton—I ask my colleague if, two years ago this fall, he was not elected to the Senate of the State of Illinois, upon the same ticket upon which Judge Trumbull was elected to this House, and upon the Nebraska issue alone? [Great sensation, and anxiety expressed for the answer].

Mr. Morrison—Two years ago I was elected to the Senate of Illinois. I was a very violent anti-Nebraska man. [Laughter and excitement]. At the same election Mr. Trumbull was elected to the House of Representatives. I supported him, and did all I could to secure his election.—[Sensation.] Mr. T. went before the Legislature of Illinois. I saw that the anti-Nebraska issue was leading me into the ranks of the Abolitionists, and I wanted a living example of one man at least; who, taking the first false step, did not "to Hell's perdition go." [Laughter]. I went to the Senate of Illinois, and Mr. Trumbull's name was presented for the Senate of the United States. Although I had voted for him as Representative of the district, I refused to support him for the Senate of the United States, and voted against him. I went back to my district, united myself to the Democratic party, and fought its battles.

Mr. Norton—As my colleague has not stated the precise time when he became a convert to the Democratic party and the principles of the Nebraska bill, I will send up to the Clerk's desk some resolutions, and ask that they may be read, and then I will ask my colleague if he offered those resolutions in the Senate of Illinois. [Excitement and cries of "read them!"]

Mr. Morrison (confused)—I can tell the gentleman when I joined the Democratic party.

Mr. Norton—I desire to have the resolutions read. [Laughter].

Mr. Morrison—I hope my colleague will not occupy my time. [Continued laughter].

A Voice—That fellow will be a cold "sucker" before Norton leaves him. [Laughter].

Mr. Norton—Does my colleague refuse to have his resolutions read?

Mr. Morrison (excited)—I will read them myself [Laughter].

Mr. Norton—I will read them.

Resolutions were read as follows:

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring therein,) That the General Assembly of the state of Illinois most emphatically disapproves of the repeal of the clause prohibiting the existence of Slavery, which was contained in the act admitting Missouri as one of the states of the Union, and our Senators in Congress are hereby instructed, and our Representatives requested, to give their earnest support to the restoration of said clause prohibiting Slavery in the territories of Kansas and Nebraska.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to transmit a copy to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

These resolutions were offered on the 7th day of January, 1855.

Mr. Morrison.—Is my colleague done?

Mr. Norton.—Did you offer the resolutions I have just read?

Mr. Morrison (bowing and chagrined)—I did. The gentleman wants to know when I came to the Democratic party. I came to the Democratic party when faction, fanaticism and intolerance were sweeping the Northern States with the besom of destruction. I came to the Democratic party in the hour of its need; when the Democratic party, breasting the waves of the fretful Tiber, called upon all national men to aid "Cassius, or I sink." [Laughter.] Then I came to the support of the Democratic party, and I did not come alone. My district, which gave Mr. Trumbull 2,000 majority, sends me here the nominee of the Democratic party by 2,000 majority.

Mr. Norton.—I will ask my colleague whether, at the time he offered these resolutions believed that the sentiments they contained were sectional or national?

Mr. Morrison—I thought it was a very good strike for the Whig party to embarass and defeat the Democratic party; but, Sir, at the time I introduced those resolutions the Republican party had not been born. It was a late production.—When I saw the banner which I had followed in so many a good fight, furled and shrouded in mourning, and lying upon the grave of the immortal Clay, I found growing out of the ruins of that old Whig party sectional in its principles—and I believe I can prove the sectionalism of the party. Mr. E. went on endeavoring to show that the Republican party was sectional in its character by the reading from its platform. Does not my colleague recognize that power in Congress?

Mr. Norton—I hold that Congress has the power to prohibit Slavery in the Territories, just as it has to regulate their affairs on other subjects.

Mr. Morrison—Just the answer I expected. It proves the sectionalism of the gentleman and of his party.

Mr. Norton—Does my colleague deny the power in Congress to prohibit Slavery in the Territories?

Mr. Morrison—I am not a Yankee, nor the son of a Yankee.

A Voice (among the Republicans)—Thank God for that, [laughter.]

Mr. Norton—I am both. (Laughter.)

Mr. Morrison—I do not answer one question by asking another.

Mr Norton—Does my colleague deny that Congress has the right to prohibit Slavery in the Territories?

Mr Morrison—I cannot yield.

Thus the colloquy ended amid roars of laughter from all parts of the House except that especially occupied by the chagrined Slaveocrats who had gathered around the new-born champion of Democracy from Egypt, supposing him to be a whale, when, alas, he was only a "Sucker".

BOSTON.

Fire—Fatal Fight.

ALBANY, December 14.

Early this morning a fire broke out in the old depot of the Hudson River R. R. at East Albany, which is now used for storing freights. It was totally destroyed together with the passenger depot and restaurant attached. The loss is chiefly on freight. Damage estimated at $50,000. The property of the Company is said to be insured.

The freight in the depot consisted chiefly of butter, clover seed, cheese and flour.

After the fire a fight took place between two employees of the road, named Henry Brown and Edward Gallagher. Brown was violently thrown on the ground, falling with his neck across the track, when Gallagher kicked him. Brown, on being raised up, was found to be dead. Gallagher was arrested.

A BIT HONORABLY PAID.—During the late Presidential canvass, a young gentleman in this vicinity, of thirty years or over, proposed to a "fair one" of his acquintance, that they bet on the result of the election. The terms of the bet, were that she take her choice of the candidates, and pledge herself on his success, and he would stake himself on the success of the other. She accepted the proposal, and made choice of Fremont, as her candidate. The forfeiture was paid, a few days ago, at the residence of the Rev. ——, where she gave her hand for life, to him who had won it; and the happy couple started on a tour to the East, doubtless, feeling that, though one had lost the bet, each had won the "stakes"—Racine Advocate.

Pittsburg—A Gloomy Prospect.

The Pittsburg Evening Reporter of Monday, states that from one-fourth to one-third of all the coal started from that city down the river, stranded by the way, and a considerable per centage of it was lost altogether. The Reporter says:

As might be expected, the freezing weather is bringing the river down again as rapidly as it rose, and we are threatened with a speedy close of the navigation. A small portion only of our accumulated stocks of manufactured articles will have been carried to a market, and small supplies of the much needed raw material and produce have reached our port. This makes the prospect before us a gloomy one indeed for business, and all classes of business men.

Pittsburg has been sorely tried within two years. The drought, cholera and commercial revulsion of 1851, crushing business at the time, and reflected in famine prices for bread, and depression of trade in 1855, were hardly alleviated by an active trade in the spring of this year, when navigation failed and remained suspended until December instant. The marvel is that our merchants and manufacturers have been able to stand up and sustain themselves against such a concurrence of vicissitudes and disaster, with scarce an indication of failure. That they have borne themselves up so bravely is proof of the general stability of our business classes, and authorizes the confidence we feel that they will weather safely another term of privation and stagnation of trade to which, if present fears are warranted, they are surely destined. Appearances are against us certainly, and we should prepare for the worst while hoping for the best.

SWITZERLAND PREPARING FOR WAR.—The difficulties between Switzerland and Prussia in regard to the sovereignty of the Canton of Neufchatel, look very squally. A late foreign journal thus states the military condition of the Republic:

The staff of the Helvetic army comprises 10 Federal colonels (generals of division), 33 Federal lieutenant-colonels (generals of brigade), and a proportionate number of other officers. The title of general is only given to the Federal Colonel, the Commander in chief the army.

The effective strength of the troops is thus composed:

	Men		Men.
Engineers	1,090	Infantry	189,431
Artillery	14,273	Medical Staff, or service de santé	587
Cavalry	8,008
Riflemen	13,703
Total (and 700 guns)			162,948

The Federal Government, moreover, can, in case of war, call out the cantonal troops, consisting of upwards of 40,000 men, and would probably recall the 12,000 Swiss who form the nucleus of the army of the King of Naples. In fact, Switzerland can put on foot a force of about 214,000 men.

DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION.—Yesterday morning between three and four o'clock, the "look-out-man" on the City Hall sounded the City Fire Bell, and our firemen, answering the call, discovered that the fire was on the other side of the river, in the Freight House of the Hudson River Railroad Company. They proceeded to the spot as soon as possible, but their efforts were of little avail. The fire had attained such a wide-spread headway that it swept down everything within its reach. We are informed that it caught in the "Oil Room," where, for the benefit of the oil, a fire was kept. From thence it communicated to the Freight Depot, and over to the Passenger Depot, burning both those extensive structures to the ground. The Passenger Depot was about 250 feet long. The Freight House was still larger, being about 350 by 80 feet. The house was well filled with freight, all of which was destroyed. The Company, at this season of the year, does a heavy freight business, and their hands had been engaged until a late hour the previous night, loading up a train, which, when filled, was drawn out, and a train of empty cars given its place, which was to have been freighted early yesterday morning. Eight cars of that train were totally ruined, as was one passenger car. Several passenger carsalso, were badly damaged. It is estimated that there were between seventy and eighty car loads of freight in the freight house, not a package of which was saved. The loss is set down at $100,000! It will be found, we think, to exceed this. Of course the Depots were insured, but it is possible that the freight was not, and, on doubt, the the question as to which party shall assume the loss (with regard to much of it, at least,) will give rise to litigation. We believe that Railroad Companies do not suppose themselves liable for goods destroyed by fire while in warehouse, and probably they are not. It is said that the Company had five private watchmen on duty about the premises throughout the night.—Athens Argus, Monday, 14th.

SUSPENSION BRIDGE OVER THE OHIO.—The construction of this work over the Ohio River at Cincinnati is a fixed fact. Three hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been subscribed, and bonds will be issued for as large again a sum to complete the bridge. A correspondent of the New York Post gives the following facts in relation to the work: "The towers, of which both foundations are now laid, eighty-six by fifty-two feet at the base, will be two hundred and thirty feet high, and one thousand and six feet apart. The cables will be anchored three hundred feet back on each side of the river, pass over the tops of the towers, and this be made to sustain the weight of the bridge. The entire span will therefore be sixteen hundred and six feet—a little short of one third of a mile. The elevation of the floor at the middle above low water mark will be one hundred and twenty-two feet. The great flood of 1832—the highest on record—rose sixty two feet above low water; and, making allowance even for this, there will remain sixty feet, which is considerable more than will be required for the highest steamboat pipes on the river.

A novel spectacle to look down on those splendid floating palaces passing under this magnificent span.

The highest grade of ascent at either end will be seven feet in one hundred, and the bridge will be equal to everything but a railroad train. The foundations were begun on the 1st of September, and the structure will be completed in three years from that time.

EXPENSIVE DRINKING—RESISTING OFFICERS.—We learn from the Ozaukee Advertiser that Mr. Tibbits, Deputy Sheriff, arrested on Wednesday morning Peter Goshie, while in the store of John Longly, for selling liquor without a license, and before he had time to get out of the store with his prisoner, Longly had barricaded the door, and defied Mr. Tibbits and the law. Longley then invited Tibbits to imbibe, which he done, thinking by so doing good feeling would be restored; but in this he was disappointed, for Longley immediately demanded $30 for the drinks, and forced from him all the money he had about his person, which was $4, and compelled him to give his note for the balance.—Washington County Democrat.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

SURF IN THE ICE.—The Port Huron Commercial of Thursday, the 11th, says "the Propeller Mohawk Chief, loaded with miscellanies for W. H. B. Dowling & Co., while running up Black River on Sunday night, was run into by the ice, and when her cargo was nearly discharged sank, leaving her deck just out of water. She was pumped out and raised on Monday, with trifling damage.

The schooner Ariel was also cut into by the ice, while coming up Black River, on Wednesday, and sunk with three feet of water in her hold. She was loaded with merchandize for our merchants. We do not learn of what extent it was damaged."

☞ The propeller Bay State started for Cleveland yesterday but on reaching the mouth of the river found the ice quite firm, and stretching out as far as the eye could reach. Her Captain thought it not prudent to proceed, and returned to port.—Detroit Advocate, 18th.

COUNTY COURT—December 18.

HON. BYRON PAINE, PRESIDING.

A case in replevin—Jury trial, O Alexanders vs Frederick L. Tebel occupied the Court during yesterday.

Destructive Fire!

The Foundry of L. L. Lee & Son, in the Fifth Ward, was entirely destroyed by fire, last evening. The flames were first discovered between 7 and 8 P. M., and, fanned by the fierce gale, made rapid progress. The main building was soon in a bright blaze and the glare of the rising conflagration lit up the sky and alarmed the whole city. The Fire Department hurried to the ground, dragging their engines through the snow-encumbered streets with great difficulty. Their efforts, however, to stop the flames were comparatively fruitless. But very little of the buildings or machinery was saved. There was an insurance on the property of $10,000 in three different offices, but the loss must be double that amount. The blow is a hard one upon the proprietors, industrious and enterprising mechanics, and entitles them to the lively and practical sympathy of their fellow-citizens

Among the Booksellers.

We dropped in at three of our book stores yesterday to see what they really had, concerning which they say so much in their advertisements, and were satisfied that they have not exaggerated in the matter in any wise. Indeed we think that the stock of standard and choice books, and of the various artical s appropriate for the holiday season, is very far superior to anything ever offered here before

At ARNOLDS, we found his stock of engravings full and select, h s books for children plentiful and beautiful, and his portfolios, fancy stationery, etc., (comprehensive "&c." that!) large and attractive. Among the elegant books suitable for gifts, we noted especially the following:—"Berlin and its Treasures," "Outlines from Judd's Margaret, by Darley," "Gems of British Art, 80 engravings," "London edition of Longfellow," "Holy Gospels," "Payne's Book of Art," and McKay's "Salmagundi."

The collection of illustrated editions of the poets is very fine.

At TEBAY & Co's, we found that they had devoted less attention to ornamental than to standard books, and that their stock of Bibles, Prayer Books, editions of Byron, Scott, Moore, Shakespeare, and other of the great poets was large and varied, and the few Juveniles abundant and attractive. We found here the first copy we had seen of the new gift book, got up in Paris in splendid style by Mr. Goodrich, "The Court of Napoleon," giving authentic portraits of the beautiful and brilliant women who ruled the hours of those eventful days. Here also, side by side with this last, was The Republican Court, with its speaking likenesses of the very different sort of women, who about the same time were to be seen with the wife of Washington.

At SWEETLAND & Co's, whose store is now very much crowded with the large stock just opened, and waiting to be removed to more commodious quarters, we found lying before us the finest collection of splendid library editions of standard authors, Prescott, Wilson, Scott, Pardee, Shakespeare, Johnson, Goldsmith and others, that we have seen in the west The Poets, in infinite variety of styles, are fully represented. Bibles and Prayer Books—some of them in very costly and tasteful styles—like tempting the seeker after gilt. Among the more elegant books are "The Court of Napoleon," "The Wilkie Gallery," "The Vernon Gallery," "Roberts' Holy Land, 3 vols," "Perry's Japan," "The Dresden Gallery," and "The Munich Gallery." Then the stock of portfolios, workboxes, perfume boxes, &c., &c., is very choice as well as large; and the Swiss music box, playing airs from the German operas, imitating the tambourine, triangle and castanets, places the buyer in a remarkably good humor with the world. We invite attention to the very full advertisement of this firm, which we publish this morning.

There are more of these houses yet. This must suffice for to-day.

For the Daily Sentinel.

The Measurement of Wood.

MESSRS. EDITORS — Your correspondent of yesterday is not the only person that suffered by the incapacity of the wood measurer at the Market Square. I bought a load of wood measuring (by the market ticket) 143 feet. After it was unloaded and paid for, I put it up and it fell short of 128 feet. I think it is time to remove the present measurer and appoint a competent measurer in his place.

MARTIN LARKIN.

WOOD INSPECTION.—MR. HEITZBERG, the Wood Inspector, desires us to say that he exercises great care in the measurement of wood, but that it is a common practice of parties purchasing to leave the ticket in the hands of sellers, and some of the latter are dishonest enough to present the same ticket with the next load, measuring much less if on the first He wishes that in case of discrepancies between the tickets and the loads, application be made to him.

HARDT & Co—opposite the Walker House, importers of English Cutlery, &c., have a small store it is true, but it is well filled with very valuable goods, neatly arranged for inspection. By their advertisement it will be seen that they have provided a select stock of Jewelry, and a variety of other articles, suitable for presents. We commend their case, and their cases of goods to the attention of our readers.

FAST DRIVING IN THE STREETS.—We invoke the aid of the Police to put a stop to the fast driving through our principal streets. Within the last day or two, we have seen carters and sleighs dashing down Spring, Mason, Third Water streets, &c. a furious rate of speed, not only in violation of the City Ordinance, but to the serious risk of life and limb. It should be stopped at once and effectually

PIANOS.—Our quiet neighbor up Wisconsin Street, Mr. T. B. MASON, has an advertisement to-day of the splendid stock of Pianos which he has on hand. These instruments of music have become about as much necessary articles of furniture as bureaus or tables, and persons who are about making their wives or daughters presents of the kind, will do well to call and see Mr. Mason.

POEMS OF JAMES AND HORACE SMITH.—We are indebted to HOAR & FAIRBANKS for a copy of a neat American edition of these widely known and universally popular poems. Portraits of the gifted brothers and a biographical sketch add to the interest of the volume It is edited by EDES SANDERS and well printed by Mason Brothers, New York.

FANCY DRY GOODS.—CHANDLER & JENNINGS, of the Metropolitan, invite the attention of the public, in these holiday times, to their very choice selection of articles in the dry goods line. One must be very hard to suit who cannot find something in their store to please the most fastidious taste.

CHINESE SUGAR CANE.—In our notice yesterday of Mr. MASON'S samples of sugar cane, the figure representing the height of the plants fell out. They stand about 8 feet high.

☞ The following list of letters deposited in the Milwaukee Post Office, is detained for prepayment of postage, Dec. 19, 1856.

VOLUME XI — MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 19. 1856. — NEW SERIES.

Every Man his own Miller.

PORTABLE CAST IRON GRAIN MILL.

Young America Improved and Perfected

THE above mill was patented by Charles Pearsall, of Jll., F b 8TH, 1855. This mill took the first premium at the Ohio State Fair, 1855, over all other mills, and during the fairs of the fall of 1856, the first premiums over many others in the State Fairs of Ohio, New York, Tennessee, Michigan and Minnesota, also, at the County Fairs of the following Counties of Ohio and Indiana, viz Guernsey, Crawford, Logan, Medina, Ashland, Wayne, Knox, Montgomery Clarke, Erie, Lorain, Richland, Plymouth Harlem, Chester, Frederick In Indiana, Tippecanoe, Jefferson, Wayne, Fayette, Shelby, Jennings, Warren and Fountain

Farmers, Saw Millowners, Livery Stable men and all others feeding stock of any kind are invited to examine the merits and superior advantages of the above mill

The Young America will grind as much corn in the cob, shelled corn, oats, barley, and all other grains for stock as any mill of the same size and with much less draft

What we claim is great strength durability and simplicity, being so simple that a child can learn to grind with safety

In the next we claim the small expense to renew the grinding parts of the mill, and the ease with which the grinders are put on the mill at a cost of not over Three dollars, which makes it superior and more economical than any other mill The grinding parts of the above mill are made of the hardest of cast iron, as hard as cast steel can be prepared Each set will grind from 5,000 to 10,000 bushels of grain, with proper usage Besides the set of grinders on the mill, an extra set will be sent with each mill sold, making it equal to two common mills When found necessary to change the grinders, almost any one can do it in twenty minutes.

As a proof of the estimation in which the Young America is held in Ohio, we would state that during the fall, winter and spring of 1855-56, 2500 were made and sold in Ohio, at Zanesville, by Douglas Smith & Co , Hall & Allen of Mansfield, Eldridge & Fauver of of Cincinnati, and at New Philadelphia

At this time there is not less at 200 being sold every week in Ohio, at retail, besides those sold in other states east and west.

The above mills are being manufactured and can be furnished at wholesale and retail, from the Wisconsin Iron Works of A J Langworthy, on the water power in the City of Milwaukee Each mill is warranted perfect in all respects

Dealers in agricultural implements and machines of the State of Wisconsin, are requested to call and make arrangements for the sale of the above mills, to whom a liberal discount will be made on the retail price. also any others wishing to engage in a profitable business Would call attention to good men who have leisure, in any part of the State, who would peddle the mills through the country Four can be taken on a wagon at a time—liberal arrangements would be made with them

The above mill will grind from 8 to 20 bushels of grain per hour, in accordance with the kind and condition of the grain

Price of the Young America $35—ready to deliver to and warranted to grind as fast as any mill of the same size when properly worked, and with less draft.
